Popular Keynote Topics

Play Big – Tapping into Being Olympic: This speech entertains with the inspirational story of Mary O. Andrews making the U.S. Olympic Team on her final javelin throw—in the rain. Audiences learn to play big in their lives with an extraordinary experience of success through Olympic-like celebration.

Passing the Baton of Success: Retirement is often seen as a light switch – one day I work and the next I don't. In this speech, you will hear how to design all four stages of retirement and take your organization's success to the next level. You will learn how to honor the legacy of the company, produce results for this quarter, and enjoy life now rather than after retirement.

Busting the Myth of Work/Life Balance: In this speech, you will be acknowledged for the results you have already generated. You will then be invited to take a fresh look at doing it all and getting away from the thinking that work and life are somehow at odds with each other.
