
Every business deserves to have an extraordinary impact.

Mary O. Andrews, MA, PCC
Olympian, Professional Certified Coach
President, Andrews Performance Corporation
Vistage Resource Speaker

Individuals and organizations that Play Big rely on thinking partners who support new possibilities and game-changing success. Mary O. Andrews, who became an Olympian on her last javelin throw in the rain, taps into sports analogies for access to effective ways of thinking.

Combined with a keen eye for performance improvement and the wisdom of professional coaching, Mary provides the planning space and accountability for people and teams to be great leaders.

Mary has a Masters Degree from Stanford University. She is President of Andrews Performance Corporation and holds the designation of Professional Certified Coach (PCC) through the International Coach Federation.

Mary recently served on the leadership team of the San Diego Chapter of the Exit Planning Institute, which brings together professional advisors to educate and assist business owners with all aspects of exiting their businesses and successfully transitioning to the next phase of their lives.

Brian Conlon, PMP, PCC
Owner of Conlon Coaching & Consulting
Business Development with Meridian Pacific Properties

Brian Conlon is a Project Management Professional with a degree in Mechanical Engineering from UC Santa Barbara. He served over 5 years as a Project Engineer and Product Manager with Siemens Industry Inc, before transitioning into a career as a coach.

As a Personal & Professional Coach, Brian empowers groups and individuals to unleash the greatness within based on their own values and belief systems. He provides insight and resources geared towards the attainment of client goals and objectives while empowering them to live their lives to the fullest.

Brian spent six years training coaches with Accomplishment Coaching – providing training in multiple cities and organizations across the United States. He holds the designation of Professional Certified Coach (PCC) through the International Coach Federation.

Brian brings his project management and leadership training background to his work in supporting the business development of Meridian Pacific Properties.

